

'Show your love for the stranger. For you were strangers in the land of Egypt'

Deuteronomy 10:19

This church stands with refugees like Tatiana

Tatiana, 43, lost her husband in the Bucha Massacre in the early weeks of the Russian invasion of Ukraine. He was killed trying to protect his family home from an oncoming tank. After a frightening escape to neighbouring Poland with her two daughters, Tatiana is now benefitting from the support of All We Can and the Methodist Church's local partners. Thanks to your generosity, refugees are being supported with cash assistance, Polish language classes, and psychological support.
